District 109 Howard School

District 110 Crabtree--Garfield. Census: 7 pupils, 78 days taught, salary $40 Teacher Mary Steward, and Irma Rounds. Families: G. Garrells, A. Cox, R. Duncan, J. T. Lemon in 1900. In 1902: 8 pupils, 3 mo. school, salary $40, Teacher Cora Manning. In 1910 the following families were in the district. Henry Scheurman, J. Litzenburger, Mrs. Mansfield, L. Utke, R. Vannice, J. Hergert, and J. Repp.

District 111 Hamilton School--Endicott Census: 17 pupils, 2 mo. school, Clerk--George Blancett, Director--J. Jones. Families: Hamilton, Stimpson, W. Snyder, D. Hickey, H. Sutton. (Dist. 112 below)

District 113 Thornton Census: 11 pupils Families: J. Hodgson, J. Nowlin, M. Taylor, Walter Hortly, O. Mattoon, J. Bryson.

The first session at Thornton was in the Branson home, with Mrs. Branson teaching a 2 mo. term. Then a school was built by the former brick R.R. power house, across from the elevators. Early teachers were J. Smith, Mr. Johns, and Miss Howell. A deed was recorded for a school in 1891. It was a wooden structure with 2 rooms. In 1898 a two story school was built. Later it was moved down off the hill, when the brick school was built in 1916. The 2 story building was used for a lodge hall for many years. In 1917 there were 120 pupils in school. Other early teachers were J.C. Webster in 1898 and Minnie Harris in 1899. The school consolidated with Rosalia in 1966.

District 112 Gross school-Thornton Census: 25 pupils, Clerk J. James, Director-I. Gross. Families: Morgan, A. Cornelius, J. M. Loyd, Groom, Chalice, W. Rich.

Pleasant Grove School

District 160 Canyon School Census: 30 pupils, 8 mo. term, teacher Mary Danford, salary $50. Families: W.T. Robbins, S. Jeremiah, C. Meeks, W. Reed, A. Allen.

District 161 Long Hollow--Hay Census: 19 pupils, 6 m. term, Teacher Helen Webster, salary $50. Families: J. Sperey, J. Rothwell, F. Lindsley--clerk, and R. King--director.

District 162 Little Valley School--St. John Census: 85 pupils at one time, 7 mo. school, salary $50, teachers were Bessie Spitznogle, and India Fisher, Clerk--W. Gosney, Director--Frank Hamilton. Families: H. R. Repp, C. Slocum, B. Smith, and E. Sharp. Location T18, R42, S19.

The school consolidated with St. John on Apr. 30, 1929. AT that time there were 22 pupils, and 1 teacher. Little Valley was the first of 13 school to move to St. John, to join with them. Some early teachers were Olive Harper, -1920, Verna Scholtz, Nancy Ledgerwood in 1925, Mabel Denton in 1927. Berneice Gass was the last teacher at the school. Families attending in 1927-28 were Roy Freeman, Van Vooris, Art Reese J. Giles(father had died and children were staying with A.

Gosney), Geo. Repp, C. Bloomenshein, and C. Lust.

An unusual happening at the school was a performance by a Wrestling Bear. A man came through the area and put on shows at St. John and Little Valley with his bear. Art Reese, a very large man who had been a former wrestler, wrestled the bear, which brought out a large crowd. Mr. Reese lived in the District.

Olive (Harper) Oakshott writes of the literary society they had. They gave 3 act plays, one of which was quite an attraction for many came from the other areas as well as Little Valley. They also gave debates and skits.

Little Valley School

District 163 Harlan School at Garfield Census: 8 mo. term, 32 pupils, salary $46, teachers Annie Eveleth, and F. Scott, was clerk, with Frank Harlan as director. Families: J. Hendrix, S. McKenzie, J. Lemon, R. Duncan, B. Haun.

By 1912 Harlan School had 28 pupils, the teacher was Cordie Hall, the clerk was F.M. Scott, and J. T. Lemon director.

District 164 Cox School at Hay Census: Teachers Mr. V. E. Bascom, and Alice Stone.

By 1912 Cox School had 12 pupils, with Amelia Parkinson as teacher. The salary was $70 and the term was 6 months. D. S. Ryan was clerk, and Carl Carlson was director.

District 165 Golding School--Colfax Census: 27 pupils, 9 months term, Salary $50, teachers were Retta Martin, Ida Austin, and J. Guerretay. The Clerk was W. Golding, and director, was C. O. Bains.

re. After his recovery she accepted a position in Oroville. There she taught and organized a library. Later she was moved from the elementary dept. to the secondary school, where she taught English and was girls counselor and librarian. After 12 years she married and retired from teaching. However later that year, the Okanogan Co. Supt. ask her to substitute in the Chilliwist School until a teacher could be found. Evidently it was impossible to secure a teacher, so she remained there for the entire year. Upon returning to Oroville, she was asked to resume H. S. Teaching and library work.

In the summer of 1946 the U. of W. library school asked her to consider going to the boom town of Richland, to organize libraries in the elementary schools. She continued to serve as an elementary school librarian until her final retirement from teaching in 1958.

Oakshott, Olive (Harper) Address: Colville, Wn. Certificate: Cheney Normal Life Diploma in 1923, W.S.U. in 1927. Taught: 1920-22 Little Valley, 1923-24 Thera, 1925-26 at Colville, 1958-67 Arden, 1967-69 Mill Creek.

I graduated from St. John H.S. in 1919, spent a year at Cheney Normal, and began my first year of teaching at Little Valley school near St. John in 1920. I was 18 years old and had never seen the inside of a rural school, although a course in Rural Sociology, given by Mr. Craig, at Cheney, had given me some idea of how to organize a school program. The schoolhouse was neat one room wooden building painted white, and I think there was a belfry and a bell. I know that water was carried from a well in the school yard, and coal from a shed near by. Of course, there were no inside toilets, they were outside, behind the main building.

Mrs. Jemima McKay was clerk of the board, and I'm sure Fred Kerkman and Jim Freeman were the other directors. They were very understanding and encouraging.

The families represented as I remember were: Appel, Bafus, Blumenshein, Cottrell, Freeman, Hamilton, Kerkman, Mattingly and Repp. The salary was $135, an excellent salary for the period, due perhaps to the shortage of teachers following World War 1. Of course I did the janitor work, although a kind young man in the neighborhood sometimes oiled the floor, and in extremely cold weather, started the fire. I boarded a short time with the Cottrell family and enjoyed walking back and forth to school (about 2 miles) with the children. Two of them were of Russian parentage, and were just learning to speak English. They would hide in the bushes by the side of the road, then jump out and try to scare me. Later I stayed at the Jim Freeman home, nearer the school. I began the school year with about 20 pupils in 5 or 6 grades, enough to tax the ability of an experienced teacher. One morning I arrived at school to find a family of 6 children to be enrolled. They filled all 8 grades, and also filled all the seats. I remember very little about my teaching methods but I do remember that winter was very long, with 30 children using one room for study and play, and I especially remember the first day of spring. Suddenly the air was full of bluebirds, buttercups bloomed in the sunshine, and the children were playing out doors.

I had always been interested in plays and readings, and was glad when someone suggested we form a literary society. It was very popular during the winter months when young and old gathered in the schoolhouse for singing, readings, debates, and skits, followed by refreshments. Finally we decided to go one step further and produce a play, a real 3-act play!. Play practice went on for months. Actors moved away and others took their places. Finally we decided ready or not--the play must be put on. The schoolhouse was crowded with people from St. John, as far away too, as Lancaster. I'm not sure the most prominent member of the cast was the prompter, who prompted in a voice clearly audible to all the audience. Once the Hero seemed uncertain what to do next, and the prompter gave the directions "Start to kiss her". I wish there had been tape recordings in those days, and that I had a recording of that reproduction. The Hero, who by this time was really confused good, repeated--"Start to kiss her". But it turned out O.K. at the end.

I taught 2 years at Little Valley, and have many memories of the kind people who lived there, of the children who grew up to be fine citizens in spite of their teacher's inadequacies, and of my first experiences as a teacher of a Rural School.

Ochs, Leah (Cook) Address: Okanogan, Wn. Certificate: Cheney Normal, 1922-23-30. Taught: Marlin-1938-40, Anatone, 1923, Rogerburg, 1924, Zaring School-1928-37, Glendive, Montana in 1925. At every rural school was a cottage for a teacher, usually with 1 or 2 rooms. I loved the country and enjoyed the children and the association with the parents.

The grades were 1 to 8. State exams were given to all the 8th graders for entrance into High School. My pupils were excellent, and always did very well in the tests. Discipline was no problem, ever. Children were so anxious to help me with the janitor work that I made a rule for a neat paper of 100 in spelling or arithmetic, the boys could tend the stove, and carry wood, coal or water, while the girls had the honor and privilege to wash the blackboards, sweep the hall, or arrange library books. It worked very well. Some names I recall from Zaring School were: Gilford, Velda, Norma, Howard and Kenneth Wigen, Clarence and Velma Needham, Albert, Paul, and Oscar Broeckel, Margaret, Elma and Ruby Krom, Willene and Norma Horton, John Hayfield, Tom Zarind and Kenneth Smith.

Teaching has been very interesting to me and I can't think of anything I would rather be doing. I retired in 1973.

Olson, Margaret (Miss) Address: Deary, Idaho. Certificate: E.W.S.C. first in 1930, and B.A. in 1945. Taught: 10 years in Idaho, 1943-45 Fairfield, Wn. 1945-56 Colfax, Wn. 1956- to 1972 at Moses Lake.

H. H. Ackerman was clerk, and families were: Dodson, Jacobson Naiffziger, Martin Peterman.

In 1912 Hamilton School had 21 pupils, Minnie Dasch was teacher, the salary was $70, Claude Odell was clerk, and H. H. Ackerman was director.

District 167 Lone Star--Riparia By 1912 this district was in operation. There were 14 pupils, with 8 mo. term, and the salary was $75. Eunice Curnon was the teacher, and the clerk was J. M. Brown, W. E. Baldwin--director.

Hamilton (Saint's Home) School

District 168 Turner School--St. John Census: Pupils, 15. salary $50, teacher Lucy Jordan, director-H. Turner. Families; M. Still, Pearl and D. F. Cook, E. West, Ben Trull, Jesse Reeder, J. Caffee, and A. Robison.

The first school was in Daisy Hodgen's log cabin, located near the little island on rock creek, by the railroad. Helen Schroeder was a pupil at this first school. The next school was built on the hill. The first teacher here was Mrs Lucy Downen. Mrs. Leslie (Smith) Ferris of Colfax taught her first school here. Helen Schroeder taught in 1921, and also Miss Addie Trull, and Miss Moore.

Around 1908 or 1908 a contractor was hired to build a new school. He bought the materials from the Potlatch Lumber Co. but failed to pay the bill. As a last resort the Co. closed the school and prepared to move the bldg. away. A lawsuit followed, with much excitement. Milan Still a Lawyyer represented the district. The outcome of the court case was that the lumber Co. was fined for intering with the operation of a school, and as far as anyone knows, they were never paid for the building materials. Some early pupils were Wreatha(Turner) Hamilton, Merle Turner Nichols, Emma Bean, and the Brown girls.

The Turner school consolidated with Revere and the land went back to Ben Trull, the original owner.

Turner School

District 169 Ewan.

The first school was originally at the town of Rock Lake where a postoffice was established in 1907. It was 2½ miles north of Ewan, at the foot of Rock Lake. Mrs. Chester Downen taught there 1 mo. to establish the school district. The town of Ewan was plotted in 1911. A new brick school was built on land given my Marshall Snell. It was opened in 1913. The upper grades were taught by Mrs. Curr, and the lower grades by Miss Lucy Jordan. The first graduation class of 5 pupils was in 1917. In 1942 the district voted against consolidation. They transported the pupils to High School at St. John in 1945, and the grade school consolidated with S. John in 1968.

District 170 Malden The school was built in 1909. At one time there were said to be 450 students going to school here. The school burned in the early 1920's and a new brick building was ready for use in 1924. They consolidated with Rosalia later. In 1921 these families were listed in the school census: F. Scott, Mrs. Enscoe, G. DeWitt, P. Holton, J. Korte J. Crown, O. Moody, P. Mickelson, R. Thompson, E. Pears, P. Hays, J. O'Day, W. B. Curtis, J. Murphy, E. Stedman, E. Gro-
